Poetry.

The Carpenter.

I.

O Lord, at Joseph's humble bench,
Thy hands did handle saw and plane;
Thy hammer nails did drive and clench,—
Avoiding knot and humoring grain.

II.

That thou didst seem, thou wast indeed;
In sport thy tools thou didst not use:
Nor, helping hind's or fisher's need,
The laborer's hire, too nice, refuse.

III.

Lord, might I be but as a saw,
A plane, a chisel, in thy hand!—
Nay, Lord! I take it back in awe—
Such prayer for me is far too grand.

IV.

I pray, O Master, let me lie
As on thy bench the favored wood;
Thy saw, thy plane, thy chisel ply,
And work me into something good.

V.

Nay, not; exaltation, holy-high,
I ask for more than built to pray:
Come in, O gracious Force, I cry—
O workman, share my shed of clay.

VI.

Then I, at bench or desk, or oar,
With fast or needle, net or pen,
As Jesus in Nazareth of yore,
Shall do the father's will again.

GEORGE MCDONALD.

Communicated.

"Is She Rich?"—"Is He Good for Anything?"

To the Editor of the North Carolinian.

My article "Is he Rich?" having been favorably received, I am tempted to write one on the other side. While we have the "girl of the period" there is also the "man of the period," and he is the most contemptible of the two. There is some excuse for the former, but none whatever for the latter. Loving his ease and too lazy to work, he eventually becomes a fortune hunter of the most shameless, barefaced kind. If he hears a young lady's name mentioned, whom he does not know, his first question about her is the impudent one, "Is she rich?" If answered in the affirmative the brainless snob immediately "goes for her"—pardon the vulgarism—in the most approved style; full of poetical quotations and loaded down with fulsome compliments—they cost him nothing—which he throws into her face promiscuously, without rhyme or reason, for he is not gifted with either. If she is a vain, silly girl she marries the complimentary rattlebrain; if she is gifted with keen perception, and is a sensible young lady, she shows Mr. Tittlebot Titmouse the outer door, for he did not come up to her inquiry, "Is he good for anything?"

So Mr. Titmouse was weighed in the balance and found wanting, and received the mitten. But he is not in the least discouraged; his heart is not made of glass or brimstone, for we next hear of him pattering into the willing ear of another young lady the very same compliments he was so very lavish with but a short time ago, and she (silly girl) believes it all—that she is his first and only love. (What a profanation of the sweet word!)

It is not every young lady who can bang on the Piano, screetch casta diva, and possesses a fine complexion (Drug Store) that is worth the having, for too many of these set themselves up to marry a "good ketch" ("Ketch" is good, but holding him afterward is the rub). These are quite a different article from those of whom the Poet sings:

"Beings light, with lips and eyes
That well might suit for Paradise."

NAMELESS.

CEDAR DALE, N. C., April 1st, 1872.

Augustus Claude's Reply to Millie Dare.

My Dear Millie:

I acknowledge with gratitude the receipt of your letter containing directions as to the proper course to pursue in order to develop myself into a first-class "society man," and as a necessary consequence to secure the favor and admiration of the ladies. I have deferred my reply because I was anxious before writing, to test the efficacy of your advice by actual experience, so that if it led to good results, you might know that human nature, and especially the feminine side of it is the same, the world over.

Now therefore after a week's trial I am enabled to assure you that it operates to a charm, and furnishes the most perfect key to that intricate and complex anomaly, a woman's heart, it has ever been the good fortune of any one to invent. Indeed, its effects are in the highest degree miraculous, and all young men who follow it, will agree with me in declaring that no praise could be so extravagant as to transcend its merits.

I hope, however, you will not be offended, when I make the admission, that up to the time of putting your advice into practice, I entertained very serious misgivings as to its virtue. I had previously thought, that to please the ladies, it was necessary to be modest, discreet, sensible, polite and truthful. I was even so unsophisticated as to imagine that the opposite course, would inevitably inspire them with disesteem and disgust. These erroneous notions, I imbibed largely from my mother and grandmother, who it seems, formed their estimate of the disposition and character of the "fair sex," from the friends and associates of their youth, and not from the delightful creatures who shed such lustre upon our times. I must urge also in extenuation of my mistake, that until the last few days, my life has been one of strict seclusion, and I have had no opportunity of discovering that which is now as plain to me as to you, viz: That no other method but the one pointed out in your letter will be of the slightest effect in gaining the good will of your sex.

But I must give you a report of my proceedings, though I doubt not it will be a trifle tiresome, as it contains much of what you said would occur.

In the first place, pursuing your directions, I arranged myself in a stylish suit bought for the occasion, taking special care that my boots should be three numbers too small and polished to the brightness of a sun-beam; my moustache waxed till it presented the appearance of superfine shoe-thread; and my necktie gorgeous with blue and gold. Thus accountred and feeling rather "cheap," I must confess, I paid my maiden visit. I was accompanied by Mr. Jones, a young man of intelligence and worth, but who has no hair on his lip, and who is not given to flattery. About two hours after our arrival, and just as I was beginning to wish my toes had been left at home, the ladies appeared. And here my dear Milly, I must take you to task for neglecting to inform me about the prevailing female costume, though upon second thought, I freely forgive you, as to do so would be a matter of perfect impossibility. But really its effect upon one unaccustomed to such a spectacle is quite startling. In fact the profusion of curls, (surmounting what seemed to be large and elegant hair mattresses rolled compactly together,) floating about their fair shoulders in such a bewitching manner, the bloom of youth sat so rosily on their cheeks, the inclination of their sylph like forms was so natural and graceful, their Herald's, Tribune's, Chronicles and NORTH CAROLINIANS were so symmetrically arranged, that I was fairly bewildered, and came near committing the unpardonable sin of blushing from pure embarrassment. This feeling however soon passed away, and I was enabled to carry out your suggestion of quoting poetry from Byron, Moore and others, which the young ladies admired greatly. As one of them had black eyes and the other blue, I found no difficulty in using up all the verses I had committed on the subject. From the first, I conceived a preference for the Blonde, and both the blonde and brunette conceived a preference for me. At any rate, neither seemed willing to talk to Jones. Why should they be? Haven't I told you I had no moustache? and didn't he talk sensibly all the time, and refuse persistently to invoke the borrowed muse to his aid?

By this time I was thoroughly convinced your advice was good, and that "you knew hos it was yourself;" so with renewed assurance, I assumed all the ridiculous postures of which the human body is capable, rolled my optics in quite a terrible manner, and continued to give expression to the most sentimental absurdities, both of prose and poetry, that my reading could furnish, or my own ingenuity invent. I found that the more foolishly and extravagantly I talked, the more the ladies were pleased, and as you predicted, when I assured them they were angels and the most beautiful beings that ever existed, though they pretended not to believe me and made such replies as "now Mr. Boggins, you know you don't mean that;" and "oh! Mr. Boggins how can you say so, you are such a flatterer;" still it was easy to see they did believe me, and were ready to clap their hands with delight. Next in order, I asked each "who her sweetheart was." One replied exactly as you foretold, that she hadn't any, and added in a plaintive tone, "none of the young men think enough of men to have me for a sweetheart." The other, however, said she did have one, and in describing him, drew such an accurate picture of your friend Augustus Claude, moustache, necktie and all, that he felt little thrills of ecstacy (or fear?) scampering through his corporeal essence with the most delightful rapidity. But I must tell you of the success of my Shakesperean quotation, I chose as being most pleasing if not appropriate, the language of Ophelia respecting Hamlet, when she spoke of him as "The expectancy and rose of the fair state,

The glass of fashion, and the mold of form,
The observed of all observers."

This I addressed to the ladies in a languishing tone, when one said, "I see Mr. Boggins you have read Darwin;" but the other quickly interposed, "oh! no, my dear, that's not from Darwin, it was only yesterday I saw it in the Arabian Nights." But I was convinced she said this merely to flatter me, because as it is not in the Arabian Nights she couldn't see it there you know, and I am sure from the look of wonder and admiration that came into her eyes she doubted not it was original with me. Thus I was more than ever persuaded of the infallibility of your plan. The other directions that you gave me I implicitly followed, and as I told you in the beginning with very gratifying results. When we rose to leave, the young ladies insisted strenuously that I should call again, but never an invitation did they extend to friend Jones, whom I actually pitied.

Since then I have visited a dozen other ladies, but as my experience with them is exactly similar to that with the first, I will not tire you by recounting it. Suffice it to say that I am now the acknowledged lion of the town, while Jones and the other young men of his class are like so many Jackals, and universally receive the cold shoulder from every fair creature here. All this, my dear Millie, I attribute entirely to you, and I should be the most ungrateful wretch in the world did I not repay you with the adoration—I beg your pardon, I forgot I was writing and not talking, and there's a great difference you know.

I am gratefully yours
AUGUSTUS CLAUDE BOGGINS.

"A Scrap."

BY JONAS.

Young man don't live the crusty life of an old bachelor; it ain't good for you. It will neither improve your morals, your health, or your looks; consequently it won't make people think any the more of you. Marry as soon as you can make it convenient, that is, if you can see any means ahead by which you can support a wife decently. But when you do marry, be sure and not fall in love with a face or a form instead of a woman; and don't forget either that good common sense, (I don't mean boarding school sense) is far superior to wealth, beauty, or station. True practical common sense is the first thing to look for and the main thing to look for. When you get that, everything else will most surely follow. Your wife that is to be, if she is brim full of sound sense, will gradually grow to your way of thinking, and also make you grow to her ways of thinking.

A woman who has womanly love in her heart, will find ways and means to make your love towards her grow as the years pass over you both.

And another thing needs to be heeded, and that is, a comon sense woman is not to be found where fashion insists upon dragging young females into a whirl where there is simply idle tittle tattle and little brain.

Young man! don't stand there gazing after that lady who has such a queenly air, together with the reputation of a flirt and a belle, whose father has great rolls of "green backs" on deposite to his credit in bank; for it is more than possible, that while you are straining your eyes looking after her, you are turning your back upon some sweet, unobtrusive little damsel whom nature has molded as your better half, (and better she is too) and who is just that sweet tempered, loveable little angel who will think enough of you to follow you to the world's end, and love you just as well when you get old and gray haired (and "foolish" "Jolly Jack" says) as she did the very day she married you.

Marry young man, the sooner the better for you, and keep your self out of all kinds of scrapes. Have some one for whom to labor, for whom to live someone to love, and some one to love you.

An old bachelor ain't worth a broken gimblet; he ain't worth anything. He ain't more than half a man; the world wants whole men, and so does fast growing, thriving towns like ours want whole men, so add on the other, and better half of your self quickly, and be at once happy: and in after life, you will have good cause to thank "Jonas" for preventing you being a pipe smoking, beer swigging, and card playing loafing old bachelor, and making a man of you.

Girard Trying to Raise Five Dollars.

Stephen Girard, after whom insurance companies, fire and life, have been named, and who was at one time deeply interested in marine matters, as well as great financial schemes on shore, saw "low days" before he saw high ones. At the age of about thirty years, Girard's occupation alternated between that of captain and merchant, occasionally making a voyage to New-Orleans or San Domingo, and then remaining at home to dispose of his cargo and adjust his accounts for a second voyage. It was while prosecuting one of these adventures, that he was met at the cape of Delaware by Captain James King, of Philadelphia, and who has given the following curious and remarkable account of Girard's condition at that time:

On the first day of May, 1776, (says Captain King,) I was chased by a British man of war. I ran my vessel ashore, all sails standing, about eight miles southwest of Cape Henlopen. While waiting at Lewistown for an opportunity to come up, the men-of-war were coming in and out every day, so as to prevent us from sailing. One morning, I saw a sloop at anchor, within the cape, with a white flag flying. I applied to Major Fisher, who was then commander, to send a pilot aboard of her. "No, no," said he, "that is only a British decoy to get a pilot; I shall not trust them." I then went over the cape, opposite to where the sloop lay at anchor. I hailed her, waved my hat, and did everything that I could in order to attract their attention; they answered me in the same manner, but the surf made such a noise as to prevent us from understanding each other, from which I concluded to turn back, but, as I was returning, discovered a boat rowing toward me with a flag on a staff. I waited till they came up, when they told me that they had orders from Major Fisher that if I would risk myself with them, to go alongside the sloop, they would convoy me; and if not, to return. I immediately stepped into their boat, and we proceeded to the sloop. On inquiring where she was from, they informed me, in French, that they were from New-Orleans, and bound to St. Pierre's, but that they had lost themselves. I explained to the captain, whose name was Girard, the dangerous situation they were in, and that if he attempted to go out, he certainly would be captured, as the men-of-war were in and out every day.

"My God, what shall I do?" said Girard.

"You have no chance but to push up to Philadelphia," I replied.

"How shall I do to get there? I have no pilot and don't know the way."

"These men are all pilots," I answered.

"O my good friend!" said he, "can't you get one of them to take charge of me?"

I said that I would try, and accordingly spoke to them. They were willing, but insisted they must have five dollars to give the men for rowing them off.

"O my good friend!" exclaimed Girard, "what shall I do? I have not got five dollars aboard."

"Darn the Frenchman!" was the reply, "we don't believe him; he hasn't come to sea without being able to muster five dollars."

I informed him what the men had said, and he replied,

"It is really the case; it is out of my power to muster it; and what shall I do?"

"Well," said I, "I can not stay with you any longer, for I am going up to Philadelphia myself, and I see one of my shallops coming out of the Lewistown Creek at this moment."

"Oh! you are going up to Philadelphia yourself, are you?" observed Girard; "can you not stand security to these men for the five dollars, and I will pay you as soon as I get up to the city?"

I told him that I would, and one of the pilots then took charge of his sloop, and commenced heaving anchor immediately. I jumped into the boat and parted with them. The boat put me on board of the shallop that was coming out of Lewistown with my goods, and both sloop and shallop proceeded up. Before we had got out of sight of the spot where the sloop had cast ashore, we saw a British man-of-war coming in; and we not started at time, in less than an hour Stephen Girard would have been a prisoner to the British. We both arrived safe in Philadelphia.

The foregoing account certainly shows Girard's knowledge of navigation to have been very limited, and his circumstances far from being prosperous. For although even a rich merchant might have been without five dollars in cash, under certain circumstances, yet the general description of the little sloop and her commander bespeak a considerable depreciation from his former condition. But the story of his actually having lost himself may very reasonably be supposed to have been some trick or manœuvre in Girard to obtain a pilot, knowing, as he must have done, the extreme peril of his situation, owing to the constant visits of the British sloop-of-war; and this supposition is strengthen when taken into account the close observation and uncommon sagacity of this singular man, who could thus readily invent a specious fiction in order to accomplish his purpose.—Insurance Monitor.

Robert Hall was once asked what he thought of an elegant sermon, which had created a great sensation. "Very fine, sir," he replied; "but a man can't eat flowers."

Mrs. Partington hopes she is not encouraging profanity when she appeals the anathematizer to her eyes. She would not do such a thing for the world; but leading optimists of both continents recommend it!

Republican Ascendency Vital to the Nation.

BY HON. SCHUYLER COLFAX.

When, in 1866, a President of the United States, aided by his entire Cabinet, by able Senators and Representatives, and many other distinguished men, turned the whole power of his Administration against the party whose misplaced confidence had intrusted it into his hands, it was fashionable for those who supported him to exclaim: "The Republican party having fulfilled its mission of destroying slavery and vanquishing rebellion, it is time now for new organizations and associations." But it proved to be a party with a stronger hold on the popular heart than any of the political parties of this century; and, instead of being overthrown by this threatening secession, it came out of the contest stronger and more powerful than before.

What would have been the results to nation and its interests, to those great principles for which so much has been achieved since 1866, if a Congress in sympathy with President Johnson had been chosen by the people, instead of one hostile to him and his policy—if the compact and united Republican organization had been disbanded and new parties—is so well understood now that I need not detail them.

Again, the unity of this organization—sanctified though it has been by so much patriotic blood and so many sacred tears, stirring, as it has, the conscience of the nation to its profoundest depths, prayed over by so many pious hearts, and with a history of which millions are so justly proud—is imperiled by attempts to rend it asunder into two antagonizing national convocations, and to test the experiment of affiliating one wing of the divided party with those who, from the hour of the birth of the Republican organization, have sought, though ineffectually, to stab it to its death.

This experiment has already been tested in Tennessee and Missouri, with exactly identical results. In each State one wing of the Republican party placed in the field a Republican State ticket in opposition to the regular nominees. In each State the Democracy declined to nominate a party ticket, but supported the independent Republicans. In each State appeals were made to the Republican voters to vote for the independent Republican ticket, on the ground that it was really only a choice among men of their own faith. In each State, by these appeals and with the aid of the Democratic vote en masse, the independent Republican State ticket was chosen, but with it a Democratic Legislature and a majority of Democratic Congressmen. In each State a Democratic United States Senator has been since elected. And no States are now claimed—though, perhaps, incorrectly—as more certainly against the Republicans than Tennessee and Missouri. It is proposed now to repeat these experiments on the broader arena of the nation. "In vain is the snare set in sight of the bird."

It can not be doubted that many earnest Republicans joined in these State movements, who deeply but unavailingly regret now their results. And, doubtless, many earnest Republicans, influenced by personal or legislative considerations, may have given aid and comfort to the pending movement, in the hope of more auspicious results. But a fort which could be easily held by its defenders is often most difficult of recapture when lost; while a party which comes into power is always controlled by the elements which constitute a majority of its membership. To capture the fort, the aid of some of its former defenders may be necessary. Once captured, the majority of the victors hold supreme sway. If this is doubted, let Tennessee and Missouri answer the doubter.

If a quarter of a million, or even a half a million Republicans could be induced to join three millions of Democrats in defeating the regular Republican organization, six-sevenths of the new Cabinet would belong proportionately to the dominating wing of the coalition. The supporters of the new administration in Congress would be of the same political faith. And it does not need to recall the history of Andrew PROGRESS.

We had a visit a short time since from a prominent and intelligent gentleman residing in a neighboring county who, in the course of a conversation upon general topics, gave us his experience. He said: "Before the war I lived in luxury, did not know what exertion was, did not know what was in me. Four years of exposure in the army, with constant labor and an almost continual struggle for food, and coming out with not five cents in money, I realized my position and was face to face with my own abilities, and since then I feel more of a man and more able to work and more pleasure in working." There was no grumbling, no finding fault, but on the other hand a cheerful acquiescense in the reconstructed order of things and a feeling of honest pride in realizing that he possessed the ability to depend upon his own resources.

This man's experience is only one out of thousands all over the South. Before the war, wealth and aristocratic lineage was the only resume to "society" and political position; now the surest insignias of success are industry and intelligence. Indeed, during the twelve years past the South has leaped the abyss of a century's progress and is becoming more and more prepared to move onward. And it is the younger men of the South who are pushing forward and enjoying the benefits of this great social and political revolution. And as they are true to their convictions they will carry it to a successful end.

ALAS! CHARLES SUMNER.

The appearance of Mr. SUMNER before the Senate Investigation Committee, after his undignified protest against their authority to call him, and their right to question him, appears like a great humiliation, when it is remembered that his evidence was of the most flimsy and unsatisfactory nature. Not one word could he utter, whilst before the committee, bearing upon the subject matter for which he demanded, in the most imperious and solemn manner, the investigation. He stands to-day before the country, self-convicted of an attempt, without a scintilla of proof, to condemn and disgrace his government, through a charge of infamous conduct and a violation of good faith toward a friendly nation. He has proven that his enmity and personal, bitter malignity directed against the Chief Magistrate of the country, have lead him to degrade himself by his conduct and associations, and in this he has lowered himself in the estimation of his countrymen to such a degree that we fear it will be a long while before he can rise again. We regret this,—aye, we deplore it, for there were few names we have held in such high esteem as that of CHARLES SUMNER.

RHODE ISLAND.

On the 3rd inst., "little Rhody" held her State election. More than the usual interest was aroused owing to the fact that about three thousand Democrats, registered voters, had their poll taxes paid for the first time in two or three years. The result, however, was the election of the Republican State ticket except Lieutenant Governor. Especial issue was made against the Republican candidate for Lieutenant Governor, the present incumbent, Pardon W. Stevens, because of his alleged connection with trap-fishing, and he is probably defeated by Charles R. Cutler, Democrat, by a small majority. The Senate will stand 26 Republicans and 11 Democrats, and the House 53 Republicans and 17 Democrats.

The result shows that Rhode Island is sound, and like the other New England States which have lately spoken through the polls, she endorses the National Administration in the policy of honesty, of accountability of public servants, of payment of the national debt, of economy and the firm assertion of our national rights.

A pitiable sight—HORACE GREELY trying to carry a stage load of New York soreheads to join the Missouri 'possums at Cincinnati. Alas; "how are the mighty fallen!"

The Democratic condidate for Governor of Connecticut was named HUBBARD. His run for the chair of State proved as fruitless as that of his ancient female progenitor on the classic cupboard.

THE CONNECTICUT ELECTION.

We went to press too early last week to be able to give any report of the election in Connecticut which took place on the 4th inst. While we felt confident of victory the official returns show a result more favorable than we really expected. For Governor there were four candidates in the field—JEWELL, Republican; HUBBARD, Democrat; GILLETT, Temperance and HARRISON, Labor Reform. The first received 46,561 votes, the second 44,562, the third, 1544, and the last 380 Thus it will be seen that JEWELL received a majority of 2000 votes over HUBBARD and 75 majority over all. In the Legislature the Republicans have gained four over last year. Well done gallant boys of the Nutmeg State!

Of course this is cheering. Everything is moving on auspiciously. New Hampshire and Connecticut have given the key note of the chorus which will bear the name of GRANT in triumph from the St. Lawrence to the Rio Grand and from the Atlantic to the Pacific in November next.

ANOTHER BIG HOLE IN THE DEBT.

The Secretary of the Treasury has made his monthly argument in favor of continuing the present administration in power for another term. It is a dollar and cent argument, which cannot be misunderstood by the people to whom it is addressed, showing a reduction of the puplic debt, Fifteen and a Half Millions in the month of March, and a total reduction since Grant was inaugurated, in 1869, to March 1st, 1872—a period of three years—of nearly Three Hundred Millions. The Democrats and their allies, the fillibustering soreheads, can present no argument against Grant's renomination and re-election strong enough to overcome this knock-down dollars and cent argument of Secretary Boutwell.

Brag and bluster is one of the idiosyncrasies of the Democratic leaders. A Democratic speaker or writer is nothing if he is not sensational, or does not picture himself to be a saintly prodigy, and his party friends to be angels. Taking their statements as we find them, one would conclude that this Democratic party was the greatest and grandest missionary association that was ever organized; that the sole object for which it toils and sacrifices, is to reform every evil and bring the millenium of prosperity, honest government, low taxes and every other conceivable good to the country the moment the people shall restore them to power. If they could only get the people to believe this. But they can't.

The present position of the Conservative, Liberal, Democratic what do you call it party is amusing as well as pitiable. There was once a time when to be without a name was considered a state of poverty and degradation, than which none could sink lower in the state of humanity. The present opposition to the Republican party, made up as it is of odds and ends, have gone back to first principles, losing all claims to a name by assuming alias after alias. Who has the courage to volunteer to stand as god father to this distracted family of erring children?

"The great danger is that our present rulers—that is the right term—will get a new lease of power, and completely overthrow our present form of government."—Democratic Exchange.

That's been the danger for lo! these dozen years. They have "overthrown our present form of government," according to the Democratic story, so many times that a great many talented people don't know whether they're afoot or horseback. Since the Connecticut election the number of Democrats who have abandoned hope has largely increased. It's dreadful.

"You are in a miserable minority, and must come over to the Democrats," says the New York World to the anti-GRANT Republicans. "You Democrats must disband and die before we can act with you says the the anti-GRANT Chicago Tribune. The World seems to have the best of the argument. Why should the lesser be permitted to control the greater?

It is an old proverb that "the tree is most pelted which bears the best fruit," whilst one of which the product is indifferent, innutritions, or tasteless, may stand a long time in the highway itself, and remain unmolested. How applicable is this to the treatment of Hon. JOHN POOL. But all the contrivances of Democratic abuse "return to plague the inventors."

Prof. SAMUEL F. B. MORSE, the inventor of the Electric Telegraph died in New York on the 2d inst., aged 81 years. He was undoubtedly one of the greatest inventors the world has produced. Full of honors and years, he has passed away, leaving a whole nation, aye a whole world to mourn his loss.

The Republican Party is a liberal and progressive organization. While it adheres to its great policy of the past and remains true to its traditions, it accepts the vital issues of the times as they arise, and is brave enough to confess its mistakes and to correct its own errors. Such a party will live.

The Democratic party is obliged to go before the people with the odds against it. As a party organization it has become disreputable. Its reputation earned over a half a century ago won't answer now. And the stains of blood, treason and the filth of Tammany Hall can't be wiped out.

Refused to give up their Jewell—the people of Connecticut. Having shed such abundant luster upon the State as its Chief Magistrate, they resolved to continue him an other term.

The election in the Granite State was a great Republican victory, but the Nutmeg State furnishes a—greater!

Read the able article of Hon. SCHYLER COLFAX on our first page this week.

The alliance attempted to be formed between the Democrats and Whigs of North Carolina was unnatural. We predicted that it would not endure. We felt sure that there was not the congeniality of feeling, compatibility of temper or harmony of sentiment as was essential to make the union permanent. We knew that, sooner or later, the Democracy would show the cloven foot—would flaunt the old Democratic banner at the mast-head and would attempt to coerce the Whigs into obedient submission. That time has come—the attempt is being made in every county of the State. But the honest Whigs—God bless them—are saying nay.

Correspondence.

The Pasquotank Democratic Pow-wow.

To the Editor of the North Carolinian:

About fifteen or twenty unreconstructed soreheads met at the Court House on Saturday last to appoint delegates to the Tammany, alias Ku Klux Convention to be held in Greensboro in May.

J. M. Whedbee Esq., was called to the chair, and Dr. Morgan was made Secretary. The Chairman briefly explained the object of the meeting, and closed his remarks with the assertion that in his opinion the country was about to be ruined by fraud and corruption. He doubtless had in mind the neat little speculations of Boss Tweed, Buttermilk Turner & Co., and felt sad at the iniquity of his Democratic brethren. A Committee was then appointed to draft resolutions, and in the interval of its retirement our unterrified Senator was invited to make an exhibition of his vagaries in the fire eating line. This he did in his usual rambling style. He begun by denouncing Gov. Holden for his opposition to the Ku Klux, and by praising himself for his vote to impeach him; declaring in thunder tones that he was ashamed of any one who thought 70,000 dollars too large a sum to expend in ridding the State of such a man. Here he waited to be applauded, but as even Democrats are too sensible to be "fooled with this chaff," he waited in vain. This lack of appreciation on the part of his followers caused a sickly and despairing smile to play o'er his countenance. We felt sorry for him. The speaker next read from a book, prepared by the Klan to deceive the people, the names of several prominent Republicans charged with receiving bribes from Littlefield. However as the name of Swepson, a Democrat, and the Prince of the swindlers, and that of Plato Durham and other Ku Klux who voted for the railroad appropriations were not included in the list, the hoax was patent to everybody, and once more the Doctor waited for applause in vain. Making a last desperate effort to get up a little enthusiasm he declaimed against equality between the races, and said that "a nigger was intended only for a broiling sun, an unhealthy climate and to remain in his native position." But this was worse than all, for the more sneaking and politic Democrats are "mighty sweet" on the "colored gentleman" just now, in view of the coming elections. Finding all his efforts fruitless he evidently became disgusted with the whole concern, and remembering his former glory grew eloquent in praise of the old whig party. At this unexpected turn of affairs the locofocos of the Jackson school, (who hate whigs worse if possible than they hate Radicals,) grew very red in the face, and hung their heads in a way that was enough to excite the risibles of a blind man. The committee now growing vociferous to report, the Dr. had to sit down. The resolutions adopted were after the usual style; abusing "carpet baggers, scalawags and niggers," bewailing the fate of the dear, innocent Ku Klux in the Albany penetentiary, and putting to blush generally the possum policy of the "New Departue." After a few more howls about Radical misrule and the certainty of a Radical victory, each of the four men who had stayed thus long, tore himself in gloom and melancholy from the sympathetic companionship of the others. It was a sad sight Mr. Editor, and reminded us of a funeral, but it was only the tolling of the bell, the funeral will be preached in August. Yours truly,

R.

County Convention In Beaufort county.

To the Editor of the North Carolinian:

The Republicans of Beaufort County met in the Court House at Washington on the 30th day of March 1872.

Col. S. T. Carrow chairman of the County Executive committee, called the meeting to order and on motion Wm. H. Von Eberstein was chosen Chairman and J. B. Respess and J. M. Williams as Secretary.

Republican Convention in Gates County—Delegates to the State Convention,

GATESVILLE, Gates County N. C., April 4th, 1872.

To the Editor of the North Carolininan:

Pursuant to a call of the Republican Executive Committee a number of the Republicans of Gates county met at the Court House at 2 P. M. The meeting was organized by appointing Wm. L. Reid Esq., to the Chair, and on motion Mr. A. G. Rountree was unanimously chosen Secretary.

The Chairman called on Rev. L. W. Boone to state the object of the meeting.

On motion a Committee of three, consisting of A. G. Rountree, Asbery Reid and Elisha Brooks were appointed to bring forth the names of suitable persons as delegates to attend the Republican State Convention to be held at Raleigh on the 17th inst., and report resolutions.

The Committee returned and presented the following resolutions which were unanimously adopted and ordered to be published:

1*st. Resolved*, That we approve of the call of a Republican Convention to be held at Raleigh on the 17th of April and appoint the following gentlemen:

Thos. D. Hofler, A. G. Rountree, W. O. Green, James Ballard, James R. Rooks, Isaac Smith, Jethro Bell and Jeremiah Sones as Delegates and instruct them to cast their votes of Gates county for Hon. Tod R. Caldwell for Governor of the State.

2d. We heartily endorse the Administration of Gov. Caldwell and approve of his course in opposition to the unconstitutional call for a Convention.

3d. That the arbitrary and partisan acts of the Legislature which recently adjourned cannot but be condemned by all honest men and proves conclusively that the Democratic party cannot with safety be trusted with the affairs of this State in this day of high party prejudices.

4th. That we most heartily endorse the wise and judicious Administration of President Grant in adjustment of foreign difficulties and in reducing the National Debt and reducing the enormous Tax under which an impoverished people were suffering and we therefore heartily recommend his renomination and election.

5th. That we tender our thanks to the Hon. John Pool and Hon. C. L. Cobb for their efforts in the National Congress.

6th. The proceedings of this meeting to be sent to Elizabeth City CAROLINIAN and the Era for publication.

7th. That should no delegate be at Raleigh from Gates county it is especially requested that the Hon. C. L. Cobb act as proxy for the county.

The meeting after being addressed by Col. D. McD. Lindsey and Wm L. Reid, adjourned.

Republican Meeteng in Pitt County.

To the Editor of the North Carolinian:

The Republicans of Pitt County in pursuance of notice given, assembled in Convention at the Court House in Greenville, on Saturday the 30th, day of Mar. 1872. The Convention was called to order by William A. Cherry, Chairman of the County Republican Executive Committee. Upon motion of W. L. Cherry, William A. Cherry was unanimously elected Chairman of the meeting and A. H. Mansfield Secretary. The object of the meeting was fully explained by the Chairman, upon taking his seat—to be for the purpose of appointing delegates to represent the Republicans of Pitt County in the State Convention at Raleigh, on the 17th day of April next, and in the District Convention when called.

On motion, the chair appointed a Committee of three to recommend the names of suitable persons for delegates to the State and District Conventions and to draft resolutions, expressive of the sense of the meeting to wit: W. L. Cherry, Calvin Cox, and Frank Johnston. The Committee retired, and after a short consultation returned and reported, the following named persons as delegates to the State Convention, to wit; Samuel Smith, Frank Smith, Allen Johnston, Jacob McCoteer, W. P. Bryan, B. L. T. Barnhill, Samuel A. Perry, Austin Flood, Allen Coteen, Hardy Graham, Henry C. Jones, Charles A. Whitt, James H. Foster, G. W. Cox and Calvin Cox, and the following named persons, as Delegates to to Listrict Convention, to wit: William A. Ouimerly, Louis Hilliard, William L Cherry, C. W. Smith, Calvin Cox, Oliver Clark, and Austin Flood. The report was unanimously concurred in, and the Committe further reported a series of resolutions, which were read and adopted, endorsing, in the main, both the National and State administrations and instructing and directing the delegates to the State Convention to cast the vote of Pitt County, for Thomas Settle as their first choice for Governer, and for Col. G. W. Johnston, one of our late Standard bearers against Convention, as their first choich for Attorney General. The Delegates to the District Convention were instructed to present the name of our distinguished fellow citizen, Hon. Louis Hilliard, as their first choich for Congress, from this District; that he is a man of unsullied character and a steadfast and unwavering Republican, and we believe him to be the one who will lead us to assured victory in the coming Congressional election. The Convention was addressed at length by Hon. Louis Hilliard, Calvin Cox and W. L. Cherry Esq's, in able and stirring speeches.

On motion, the Elizabeth City CAROLINIAN and the Carolina Era were requested to publish the proceedings of the Convention.

On motion, the Convention adjourned.

Next county Election in Bertie.

To the Editor of the North Carolinian.

As the election for county officers is fast approaching, I hope you will allow me to make some suggestions concerning the election of Sheriff. I believe it to be fair that the people should well understand what they are doing as good Republicans are always willing to reward those to whom credit is due.

I've placed for renomination for the office of Sheriff Frederick W. Bell He is an honest and faithful officer. My reasons for placing in renomination Frederick W. Bell for Sheriff are as follows:

1st. He has always been a steadfast and unflinching Republican; he has always been an honest officer, and has always been to the post of duty in due time to execute the duties enjoined upon him.

2nd. He is one among the most liberal men in our party, and willing at all times to oblige his friends and to accommodate his enemies. He is a tower of strength to the principles of the Republican cause.

3rd. In the dark days of party organization he was an unflinching hero, who never shrunk from the performance of what he conceived to be his duty to the Republican party. He has been, and is now, an honor to our party—he is honest and prompt in all of his business transactions, and in fact there is no good reason why he should not be neglected. Can it, or ought it be said, that the Republicans are ungenerous enough to have no gratitude for this true and tried Republican, he was one among the first white Republicans who canvassed our county, he is a man of untiring energy, of an iron nerve and never shrinks from public gaze whenever the occasion calls him. Why then should we not retain him in office. It has been the policy of the old "Democratic party to keep their Sheriffs in office many years." Shall it be said that our party will not remember honesty and faithfulness to party principles and will turn the hand which has been always ready at the call of his party.

Can we forget the day when the Stars and Stripes were raised on the pole which now stands in the town of Windsor as a token of liberty and freedom. Was the man which Mr. Augustus Robbins wants to be Sheriff standing aiding in any way to raise that pole? No he was not even in sight. Then let us keep a good man in office which we need so much.

An open Session of the Democratic Den in Perquimans.

Hertford, N. C., April 8th, 1872.

To the Editor of the North Carolinian:

The Democrats and Conservatives held their 1st meeting here on Saturday 6th inst.

The Den was small, some 15 or 16 men and 7 boys. Capt. Gilliam explained the object of the meeting, to appoint delegates to the several Democratic Conventions, State, Congressional and Senatorial. He stated that Edenton was generally understood as the place, and April 23rd the time for the Congressional Convention. They appointed about 75 to 100 delegates so that no member of the party in Perquimans should be slighted and in order that they might compliment a moderate Republicans or two by printing them in the papers.

Senator Skinner and ex-Representative Wilson addressed the meeting briefly, stating the delight it would afford them to attend the Greensboro Convention, but for the fact of want of funds. After freely stating the fact, that his per-diem had given out, the Senator humorously observed that he did not wish to be considered as seeking the place! No motion being made to raise the funds, spectators though they could perceive a shade of disappointment pass over the Senator's brow, and a deep blush suffused his handsome features and reflecting on his coat, gave him somewhat the appearance of a British officer. Capt. Gilliam then read the Resolurions, which were in substance two, to wit: One declared that Senator Pool, and Representative Cobb had act badly, shamefully, and ruinously to the Country, (Ku Klux?) and the other declaring that their purpose was to restore our beloved and darling State to its pristine purity, and to establish the system of over-drawing honesty, and penitentiary reform. The remainder consisted of "gigantic frauds," "gross corruption," "centralized despotism, etc., of the Republican party.

The Den then dissolved, their faces beaming with patriotism and General Washington.

Dr. Cox, with that love of country characteristic of Democracy, quit his pill-box for the occasion, and presided over the immense throng with gravity and dignity unsurpassed.

OCCASIONAL.

Our Washington Letter.
No. 17.

Washington, D. C., April 4th, 1872.

ENTERPRISE IN WASHINGTON.

The subject of the Piedmont and Potomac Railroad has just been discussed in the Senate. The voters of Washington by a large majority decided last year that the city should subscribe to $600,000 of the stock of the company, and the consent of Congress thereto is now asked. Some of the Senators think that they should exercise a fatherly care in preventing the citizens of Washington from exercising too much enterprise. They admit that a road in this direction would be important not only to Washington but to the general public, but some of them think that it is the duty of the public generally to take stock which is intended for the general benefit of the public at large and that the city of Washington should not be permitted to do so. Others admit that it is the duty of Congress to appropriate money to secure access by railroads to the Capital of the Nat on for its convenience, growth, and future prosperity. They express a fear that by too much enterprise the City of Washington will be bankrupted and that Congress will ultimately be called on to appropriate money to pay its liabilities for such improvements. This it appears would be no great detriment, if it is the duty of Congress to appropriate directly for the purpose. Some Senators who oppose the sanction admit that the wide streets and avenues of the Capital are made for the uation and the nation should pay all expenses concerning them and not allow the City to be bankrupted by raising money to improve them, as they declare would soon be the case if it were not for the financial ability of our present Governor Cooke. From all this it may be fairly deduced that at last we have in our city an enterprising people who are straining every nerve and using all their money and talent that can be spared for the improvement and ornamentation of the Capitol. Why then should not Congress hold up their hands in the good work and not only encourage them in all valuable enterprise but second them in their laudable efforts by appropriating money for a national park to conform to the city improvements along the Canal and government grounds from the Botanic gardens to the Potomac. This would be an improvement worthy of the American Capitol.

FUNDING FACILITIES.

Secretary Boutwell has requested of the Ways and Means Committee that authority be given him to negotiate bonds to be registered in London and the interest on the same to be paid in that city. Also that national banks be required to use other than the six per cent. bonds as a legal deposit for securing circulation. With these stipulations he declares he will be able to refund the bonded debt into bonds bearing a lower rate of interest. It will be difficult to find any substantial reason why both these propositions should not be maintained by the action of Congress. The national banks will doubtless oppose that which curtails their profits but these are quite sufficient in the estimation of the people and they will find little if any disinterested sympathy in opposing the proposition. I have long thought that two or three per cent. interest on these deposited bonds would be all that the Banks have an equitable claim to collect, when the value of their franchises given them by the Government is taken into account.

PROF. MORSE.

The death of the great telegraphic inventor, Prof. Morse, has been made the subject of general mourning and resolutions of sympathy throughout the country. In this city, for the principal object of erecting here a memorial monument and statues of those more especially identified with Prof. Morse's invention, there has been organized for some time past the Morse Memorial Telegraph Association of Washington. A meeting was held last evening to take suitable action regarding the death of the Professor. It is understood that at an early day there will be a general demonstration of our citizens in honor of the illustrious dead in the House of Representatives. Another meeting will be held this evening to make preparatory arrangements.

INTERESTING ITEMS.

On Tuesday last the first locomotive passed through the tunnel of the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad which runs under five squares of our City. The time is eagerly looked forward to when trains will run by this competing line via Baltimore to Philadelphia and New York.

Miss Nellie Grant, daughter of the President, sailed from New York yesterday for Europe. It is understood that Jesse and Ulysses, sons of the President will also make a trip to Europe in June next to spend the Summer season there.

The brickmakers of Washington have struck for an advance of fifty cents per day on their wages.

The senior counsel in both the prosecution and defence of Laura D. Fair have recently died, and the woman still lives, with a fair prospect of a long life before her. The prosecuting attorney, Henry H. Byrne, was born in New York in 1820, and was accordingly fifty-two years old at the time of his death, and it is a singular fact that he was cared for in his illness by the physician who was in attendance at his birth, and who had been his professional medical adviser through like.—Chicago Tribune.

Friendly Advice to One Who Needs It.

My Dear Jacky: It was with feelings of intense mortification that I perused your last letter in the CAROLINIAN. I hoped you would have sufficient good sense to remain quiet after the advice given you by the genial kind-hearted old gentleman who takes so much interest in you. My dear child, you should have learned ere this that writing for the papers is not your forte; you should employ your leisure hours in study and I would suggest that you commit to memory the 28th chapter of the book of Prov., "Even the fool when he holdeth his peace is counted wise," etc. I repeat I was greatly mortified that you were so anxious to expose your indiscretion to the general reader, and for a moment I determined to be guided by the words of the wise man. "Answer not a fool according to his folly, lest thou also be like him," but the verse which succeeds this determined me upon the course I now pursue. My dear child you should hearken unto the admonition of the kind old gentleman referred to, and keep your scribblings out of the papers. Your pertinacity would suggest that Israel's wise King must have had you in his "mind's eye" on one occasion at least see Prov. 12th chapter, 15th verse. I will briefly review the course taken by you in this matter after which I will not trouble the accommodating Editor of the CAROLINIAN. The pages of the paper are too important to be devoted to you and your puerile attempts to gain notoriety. In the first place your attack upon older and sensible people (to which with your usual aptitude for error you gave the misnomer of "a plea for the young folks") was utterly uncalled for and unprovoked. Study the definition of the word "plea" and then decide whether or not your effusion was a plea. If you are not blessed with a brilliant intellect, it is no fault of yours, only a misfortune, but surely all the "mother wit," with which you were originally endowed, has not forsaken you. I am ready to despair of your amendment when I see you are sunk so low as to call a proper respect for elderly persons "a bad cause." You seem to consider "back woods man" a synonym for ignoramus. My dear fellow, there you are wrong, for ignorace is not by any means confined to the back woods, for proof positive of which assertion see communications signed "Jolly Jack." I see at a glance, poor child, that your knowledge of history is very meagre, in fact your education has been sadly neglected in more than one particular. If you will only take a course of reading in that line, you will find that a knowledge of music is not confined to this day and generation. You insinuate that the girls of "the days that are no more" were an ignorant set. Wrong again, my dear boy, but you don't know any better. I do not blame you at all. You must try to improve or at least do not expose your ignorance so wantonly. I rejoice that I can gain one good seed from the chaff of your writings that is contained in your defense of the girls. In giving "honor to whom honor is due," I award you this willingly. I am sure the kind old gentleman meant to insinuate nothing wrong against the girls of E. City. We both subscribe heartily to your assertion concerning them; happy will be the day when the same can be truthfully said of the young men of the town. Hasten the day Jacky, by self improvement. I do not offer myself as an advocate of prevarication, but to explain why the girls do not tell you in plain terms how disgusting you are, I will remind you of Leigh Hunt's apology for false hood. "Truth is too precious to be wasted on every body." As you seem to have formed an higher opinion of yourself than others have of you, I would suggest that you ponder well the lines:

"Oh! wad some power the giftie gie us,
To see ourselves as others see us."

Its with many wishes for your improvement that I subscribe myself your affectionate great aunt-in law.

LUCY LITTLE.

Near E. City, April 9th 1872.

Something of a curiosity.

To the Editor of the North Carolinian:

The shore of Currituck Sound on the mainland in the region of Narrow Shore and Poplar Branch in Currituck County is skirted now and then with very high banks. The banks show a clay sub-soil, covers many feet thick with marl, beds of shells etc., and in the Spring of the year, occasioned by the high tides of the Sound, they cave in. A few days since on the farm of D. C. Lindsey at the water's edge, where the bank had caved in, the skeleton of an Indian was found, buried in a sitting posture; a vessel of pottery was also found with it, and a very peculiar barb somewhat resembling an arrow-head, though of bone, doubtless intended for fishing purposes. The bones were disinterred, and are now in the possession of Dr. McNider of Poplar Branch.

Congress.

On the 1st inst., in the Senate, the Secretary of War was instructed to report on the operation of the Eight Hour law in the Government armories. Some progress was made with the Indian Appropriation bill.——In the House, the Potomac Railroad Depot bill was passed; also a bill repealing all laws giving portions of fines to informers.

On the 2d inst., in the Senate, a letter was read from Wade Hampton and others denying that they had any connection with the Ku Klux. Some progress was made with the Indian Appropriation bill. A bill was reported for the encouragement of the growth of forest trees.——In the House, the Senate Tariff bill was tabled, the action of the Senate being considered in conflict with the constitutional privileges of the House.

On the 3rd inst., in the Senate, another Bounty bill was reported. Some progess was made with the Indian Appropriation bill.——In the House, a bill was reported to secure the public lands to actual settlers. The Steamboat bill was discussed.

On the 4th inst., in the Senate a bill was reported to promote ship-building, providing for a drawback on all imported articles used in the construction of vessels.——In the House, the Steamboat bill was passed. A National Banking bill was introduced.

On the 5th inst., in the Senate the Indian appropriation bill was considered. A bill was introduced regulating the carriage of freight and passengers on the Union Pacific Railroad add its branches. ——In the House the Shipping Commissioners and army appropriation bills were passed.

On the 8th inst., the Senate bill against straw bids for mail contracts was passed; also relieving the citizens of Loudoun county, Va., for cattle taken; also relieving Powell & Dickinson, of Knoxville paying them $64,000.——In the House Mr. Harris, of Virginia, introduced a bill refunding to postmasters in the South stamps and other property taken from them or destroyed during the rebellion, which was referred.

Michigan Republicans carry five cities this Spring which went the other way last year. The towns of the Peninsular State also give similar indications of the current of public sentiment.

There is an old gentleman now living in New Hampshire, over 90 years of age, who joined the Masons in Wilmington, North Carolina, in January, 1809. It is claimed that he is the oldest Mason in the United States.

On the 6th inst., the bark Willie and Emma, from Wilmington, N. C., to Queenstown, with a cargo of rosin, struck on Great Rey, off Nantucket, on Monday night, and bilged. The steamer Island Home went to her assistance and stripped off her sails and rigging. The crew were saved and landed at Nantucket. A small part of her cargo may be saved.

DETECTIVE PINKERTON'S LAST CASE. —The well known and vigilant moral guardian, Allan Pinkerton, spies out "cases" as quickly and as correctly as the sharpest of the lynx-eyed fraternity, of which he is the acknowledged head and king. He is as keen at detecting true merit as he is criminality, and he has now made a strong pint, professionally in the case of the Herring Safe. Eight of Pinkerton's safes went into the fiery ordeal at Chicago, But only Two Came Out And These Two Were Herring's; the other six (not Herring's) were burned to ashes: therefore, Pinkerton may well say: "I Shall In Future Use None But Herring's Safes.—New-York Day-Book.

☞ Federal Court here next week.

☞ "The True Physician" will appear in our next.

☞ No report from Edenton this week.

☞ Read the letter of "Occasional" from Hertford.

☞ We surrender considerable editorial space to our correspondents this week.

☞ S. S. FOWLER has been appointed and qualified as a Magistrate. An excellent appointment.

☞ A Currituck correspondent sends us a report of an interesting discovery. See his letter.

☞ Several original communications on our first page this week. Also several on the inside.

☞ The Farmer's Club meets in Mr. CULPEPPER'S office on every Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

☞ It is unfortunately too true that some people act as if their debts were like coffee—that they will settle themselves by standing!

☞ A constant dropping will wear a rock. Keep dropping your advertisements on the public and they will soon melt under it like rock salt.

☞ A brother editor, further South in puffing a certain soap, says: "it is the best ever made for a dirty man's face." As he publishes a Democratic paper, he ought to know.

☞ "What's in a dress?" This question was once asked by a popular writer. Our Devil says the question is hard to answer, for sometimes there is a good deal and sometimes a precious little.

☞ The communication of IRIS on "Riches" is respectfully declined. The question has been settled long ago. Give a man brains and riches, and he is a King. Give him brains without riches, and he is a slave. Give him riches without brains and he is a fool.

☞ LUCY LITTLE is rather severe on our youthful friend "Jolly Jack," but as she is a lady from the country and also claims to speak for the "young folks," we could not refuse her. Now that the Old and the Young have been heard, let the matter drop.

☞ The political outlook in these Eastern counties is cheering. The Republican party is continually growing in numbers and strength. Many of the good old Whigs are casting the Satan of Democracy behind them and abandoning the ways that lead to political perdition.

☞ From the Hancock (Ind.) Democrat of the 28th ult., we learn of the death of PENNEL BEDGOOD, of Cleveland, Ind., which occurred on the 24th of March. His disease was a bronchial affection of the throat. From the notice published we learn that he stood very high in the community in which he lived. He was a native of this State, having been born in Perquimans county in 1810. In 1829 he married Miss REBECCA B. MACKEY and settled in this county, where he resided up to 1844. He then moved to Indiana.

☞ Well they met—the Democracy of Pasquotank, in the Court House on Saturday. Of course "Our Senator" was on hand, boiling over as usual with indignation and eloquence. Our Reporter informs us that his adjectives have lost nothing in their bitterness, and that he again yielded to the temptation to round off his periods with expletive epithets against the "wicked Radicals." Of course this was well received, but when he branched off to eulogize the "good old Whigs," declaring them to be an honor to any party, the Democrats—the original simon pures—held down their heads. It wasn't the feast they had come to enjoy. The attendance was small and the enthusiasm less. The Democracy of Pasquotank is rapidly on the wane.

☞ The letter of ALPHA will hardly do for publication, but for his special information we may be permitted to say that the year 1872 is destined to be an eventful one. It will be very eventful to every maiden who gets married. Throughout the whole course of the year, whenever the moon wanes, the night will grow dark. Whoever is in love this year will think his sweetheart an angel. Whoever gets married will find out whether it is true. If a young lady happens to blush she will look red in the face. If she dreams of a young man three nights in succession it is a sign of something. If anybody jumps overboard without knowing how to swim, it is two to one he gets drowned. If any one lends an umbrella, it is ten to one he is obliged to go home in the rain for his pains.

☞ S. WEISEL, the "Old Merchant" on Water Street, has returned from the Northern Cities with a superior assortment of goods.

☞ A cotemporary quotes the saying of RICHELIEU that "the pen is mightier than the sword." Judging from his paper we think he should have a good word to say for the scissors.

☞ The weather is genial—just the sort to make vegetation grow rapidly, and

"The April showers,
Bring forth the flowers."

☞ A correspondent from Belvidere informs us that at a debate recently held at Jenning's Shop the question "Which is the most beneficial to the State, Horses or Cattle" was debated. The Judges decided that the argument was in favor of Horses.

☞ The following is a list of Patents issued from the U. S. Patent Office to North Carolina Inventors, for the week ending April 2, 1872, and each bearing that date. Furnished this paper by Cox & Cox, Solicitors of Patents, Washington, D. C. Millstone—Dress and Fractional Brake—both to P. W. Yarrell, Garysburg.

☞ The ticket nominated for City officers at the Republican Convention on Tuesday is a good one. It was natural that there should be preferences and some feeling, but now that the Convention is over and the ticket regularly before the people let every good Republican rally around it.

☞ The colored people of this City and County know that we are their friend; that we never deceive them—never advise them in any way adversely to what we believe to be their best interest. We have always been frank, outspoken and honest with them. We have never hesitated to caution or rebuke them when we have believed that they were pursuing an unwise course. We have done it for their good and they know it. They know that we will not mislead them—that we will not play the demagogue with them. They know that they can always depend upon us.

City Republican Convention.

Pursuant to announcement the Republicans of Elizabeth City met at the Court House on Tuesday April 9th, at 3 o'clock P. M., to nominate candidates for Mayor and Commissioners to serve the City for the coming year. The meeting was organized by calling Geo. D. Pool, Esq., to the Chair and J. Q. A. Wood was appointed Secretary.

On motion a Committee was appointed, consisting of Miles Commander, A. L. Jones, S. S. Fowler, G. B. Thompson, Selim Sutton and Hugh Cale, to report names for candidates. During their absence the time was occupied by several gentlemen. The Committee returned and reported the following ticket. For Mayor: C. W. Grandy, Jr. For Commissioners: Hon. C. C. Pool, Dr. W. Underwood, C. W. Smith, John James and Charles Davis. On motion the report of the Committee was adopted by a large majority. On motion the meeting adjourned.

ASHER.—At this place, on the 9th inst., of Cancer, Mrs. SARAH ASHER. Aged about 35 years.

THE TRUE GREUNDS OF CONFIDENCE.—Whence comes that firm reliance, that absolute, undoubting faith in the efficacy of Hostettr's Stomach Bitters as a remedy for indigestion, bilious disorders, intermittent and remittent fevers, which notoriously prevail in all parts of the United States? This confidence has been growing for twenty years, and it is still extending. It is no the result of credulity; it has not been engendered by any human device, but is the spontaneous and natural consequence of experience. What people see daily going on under their own eyes they cannot question. When families in unhealthy district that resort to this wholesome vegetable tonic, as a poeventive, escape periodical fevers, and their immediate neighbors, who neglect this precantion, are prostrated by the disease how is it possible that the phenomenon should be without its lesson? In like manner when it as seen that obstinate cases of dyspepia, of liver complaint, of, constipation, of nervous weakness, and of general debility yield to the operation of the famous remedy how can even incredulity itself withhold its endorsement? Eye-witnesses of the salutary effects of the tters are to be found in every civilized settlement on this continent. The thousands upon thousands who owe their restoration to health and strength, or their preservation from sickness, to its extraordinary medicinal properties, are enthusiastic in its praise. The multitudes who recommend it in a neighborly way to their friends and acquaintances, as well as those who make public their estimate of its virtues, are alway, ready to state th ir reasons for the faith that is in them. They have all either fell' or witnessed its beneficent opeations.

CORN PLANTERS

We desire to call the attention of Farmers and Merchants to our
CORN PLANTERS.

They are one of the most useful and economical implements on a farm. With them a boy and mule will plant ten acres of corn a day and do it better than it can be done by hand. The whole work is done in the same time it takes to strike out a furrow one way with a plow, as they open the furrow, drop the corn, cover and roll it, all in one opperation.

The number of grains to the hill can be regulated to suit the planter; distances, 20, or 30, or 60 inches.

☞We have sold these Planters for years, and will warrant them to give entire satisfaction to the purchaser.

FOUTZ'S
CELEBRATED
Horse and Cattle Powders.

This preparation, long and favorably known, will thoroughly re invigorate broken down and low-spirited horses, by strengthening and cleansing the stomach and intestines.

It is a sure preventive of all diseases incident to this animal, such as LUNG FEVER, GLANDERS, YELLOW WATER, HEAVES, COUGHS, DISTEMPER, FEVERS, FOUNDER, LOSS OF APPETITE AND VITAL ENERGY, &c. Its use improves the wind, increases the appetite—gives a smooth and glossy skin—and transforms the miserable skeleton into a fine-looking and spirited horse.

To keepers of Cows this preparation is invaluable. It is a sure preventive against Rinderpest, Hollow Horn, etc. It has been proven by actual experiment to increase the quantity of milk and cream twenty per cent. and make the butter firm and sweet. In fattening cattle, it gives them an appetite, loosens their hide, and makes them thrive much faster.

In all diseases of Swine, such as Coughs, Ulcers in the Lungs, Liver, &c., this article acts as a specific. By putting from one, half a paper to a paper in a barrel of swill the above diseases will be eradicated or entirely prevented. If given in time, a certain preventive and cure for the Hog Cholera.

PROCLAMATION.—

WHEREAS information on oath, and in writing has been made before me Charles C. Pool, Judge of the Superior Court, for the First Judicial District of North Carolina, that Robert M. Bridger, convicted of the crime of Perjury at the Spring Term 1872 of Bertie Superior Court, did escape from the custody of the Sheriff of said County, and is lurking about, and so keeps himself concealed in that, or some other adjoining county, that the usual process of the law cannot be executed on him.

This is therefore to command the said Robert M. Bridger to forthwith surrender himself into the custody of the Sheriff of Bertie, or some other Sheriff, so that the Sheriff of Bertie can obtain him, and should the said Robert M. Bridges continue to stay out and lurk about and keep himself concealed and not surrender after publication of this Proclamation, I do hereby enjoin and command each and every Sheriff, Coroner, Constable, and other Peace Officer, and all good citizens, generally, to forthwith capture, arrest, and bring the said Bridger to justice, and in case of his flight, or resistance after being called on and warned to surrender, any one may slay him without impeachment or accusation of any crime.

Given under my hand at Winton, this 22nd March 1872.

C. C. POOL,
Judge Superior Court,
First Judical District.

Grapes as Food for the Family.

Mr. M. B. Batcham, Painsville, Ohio, says in Hearth and Home that few people as yet, even among those who grow and use grapes to some extent, have any correct appreciation of their value as daily food. He continues: "Last year my family consisted of ten persons most of the season—six of them children from 4 to 16 years of age—and occasional visitors, perhaps making an average of 11 persons. Having a vineyard of six acres, of a dozen or more varieties of good grapes and the crop abundant and cheap, I supplied the household without stint, taking care to furnish two or more varieties at each meal, or alternating them so as not to pall the appetites of the family, as will soon be the case if only one or two kinds are eaten freely, especially if such kinds as the Concord and Delaware, which are deficient in acidity and sprightliness. By using with these such varities as Creveling, Allen's Hybrid, Rebecca, Catawba, and especially Iona, the appetite is kept fresh, and the quantity eaten by a family will be doubled. In this way I found that my family consumed on an average a 20-pound basketful daily—when not too bountifully supplied with nice peaches—for about four months; then we had 200 pounds of nice Ionas, kept fresh for Winter use, lasting until February, and a similar quantity of different varieties were used for canning and making jam and jelly, for lasting until the next crop comes in, and we find no fruit more valuable in this way to provide for a failure of strawberries or other Summer fruits. So, then, it is true that we used about a ton of grapes, but not all of them in four months, and I am satisfied that it was more profitable disposition of the fruit than selling it in the markets at the prices current last Fall. The health of my family was perfect the whole time, and from the absence of the desire for rich food, pastry, etc., there was quite a saving in household labor and in grocers bills. Moral: Let us hear no more teaching that half a dozen grapevines are enough for a family of respectable size, nor that the Concord is the only 'grape for the million.' P. S. S. I am not now a nurseryman, nor growing grapevines for sale."

Some Seasonable Suggestions.

The first work in the Spring on my own farm, writes Joseph Harris in the American Agriculturist, is to let off any water that accumulates on the surface. No matter how carefully the dead furrows and outlets may have been made in the Fall, there is always more or less to be done in the Spring, to provide free egress for the water. A few hours' work with a hoe and spade, at this season, will often let off thousands of gallons of water, which otherwise would soak into the soil, and keep it wet and cold for several weeks. Many a farmer would in this way save enough in one year to pay for a dozen good papers and a score of the best agricultural books. In letting off a shallow pool of water, the easiest and quickest plan is to commence at the pool and make a little furrow with a hoe, letting the water follow you. But where the water is in a somewhat deep basin, with little apparent fall from it to the outlet, a better plan is to commence at the outlet, and dig with a spade up to the basin; and in order to be sure that you lose no fall, dig the ditch deep enough to let the water follow you up to the basin. In this way I have rarely found a basin that could not be drained. There is nothing that people are so often deceived about as the amount of fall to land. * * * Unless we can do the work in the Winter, Spring is the best time to dig underdrains. The land is full of water, and it is much easier digging than in the Summer or Autumn. And it is no slight advantage to have water enough to level by. If the water flows freely through the tiles when laid, and care is exercised in filling in the ditches and packing the soil round the tile, tight enough to hold them in place, there is little or no danger of their stopping afterwards. * * * Harrowing Winter wheat is a practice I would earnestly commend. Many farmers are afraid that the harrow will pull up the wheat, but such is not the case. If the land is dry, a good heavy, forty-toothed harrow will destroy many weeds, break the crust stir the soil, and greatly benefit the crop. * * * Harrowing meadows and pastures is often very beneficial, and I am surprised that the practice is so generally neglected. Put three horses to a harrow, and get on and ride. Harrow the field both ways, and lap it sufficiently.

Rotation of Crops in Nature.

It is generally considered that the principle of rotation in crops is a modern discovery, and yet nature has worked in this way from the commencement. Proofs of this are seen in the vegetable remains of rocks and coal beds, and even now we see the same principle at work when we cut down a pine woods, which if allowed to grow up, timber again is replaced with deciduous trees, as oaks, beeches, maples, etc., and a beech or maple or oak wood cut will be replaced with pines. Here is undoubtedly rotation of crops, and we merely follow nature when we adopt the principle in our agricultural operations.

Poor Feed.

Jeremiah O'Brien, Oneida county N. Y., wanted to know of the Farmer's Club, what he should do for cows; he fed them hay, but they were rough, scrawny and poor, and very weak. Would cap-perse help them, or is the soil deficient in lime, potash or iron? He wanted light on the subject. F. D. Curtis—Poor feed is what's the matter. He should give them some oil meal with their hay, or steam their feed. Dr. Crane added that good hay with meal of some sort was all that was needed; it was poor feed that caused all the hollow horn we hear of and most other complaints. It did not pay to cook feed where corn was twenty-five cents a bushel, any how.

Cost of Keeping Cows in Milk in Winter.

An "Orange County" milk producer on Long Island, thus feeds his cows: namely, ten pounds of hay, four quarts of bran or oil meal, and one bushel of roots or grain daily. The cost of this is, for hay 15 cents, meal 15 cents, grain 18 cents, total 48 cents. The average yield is 188 quarts daily, which retails at ten cents per quart. Calculating for interest on cost of stock and other expences, and a proper remuneration for the uncomfortable and unreasonable labor necessary, if an "Orange County" dairymen is honest, he is far from being a "bloated aristocrat," of one who does not well earn his money.

Horses kept in the stables and not doing much work should be regularly cleaned and fed. Some farmers seem to think that unless a horse is to be taken out to work he does not need cleaning. Such a man, to be consistent, ought not to wash himself unless he is going to town.

Mrs. Laura Fair, the California murderess, has written a sympathetic letter to Mrs. Wharton.

DESCRIPTIVE CATALOGUE.

OF VALUABLE

NORTH CAROLINA LANDS,

FOR SALE BY

GEORGE D. POOL.

Real Estate Agent,

ELIZABETH CITY, N. C.

In presenting my list of lands and other properties for sale, I would say that no section of the United States offers such inducements for capitalists and emigrants, as this section of North Carolina. In longevity and healthfulness, it will compare favorably with any where and in easy and cheap transportation of its products to market, in pleasantness of climate, the sociability of the people, in great fertility and durability of soil, no section can excel us.

A railroad will soon be built from Weldon, putting this place in direct communication by Rail, with the whole United States; this, together with our great fishing farming, and manufacturing interests, and certain early completion of already projected works of improvement for putting in nearer, cheaper and easier communication with the Ocean, will render this one of the most important commercial, and manufacturing points on the Southern country.

A Steam Saw and Grist Mill in the town of Nixonton 8 miles from E. City. This Mill has a fine wharf and store attached on deep navigable water, the engine is 40 horse power, and all in good order. It is one of the finest locations to be found any where for custom work, and for getting good saw logs easily and cheaply. Price $1,000 cash.

Adjoining the mill property is 40 acres of fine land on the River, with three houses, all for $1200. Near the same is a good two story dwelling and 13 acres of land for $2,000, and a good one story dwelling, with one acre of land for $300.

Also two fine farms in Pasquotank county, 10 miles from E. City, within half mile of church, school house and post office. One tract contains about 400 acres, with fair buildings and mostly cleared, and the other contains 300 acres, with good two story dwelling, large barn, and other outhouses, both are offered at $20 per acre, one-third cash, balance in one and two years.

Also one other tract in Pasquotank county, containing 116 acres, within one mile of the town with fine buildings, mostly cleared and in cultivation. Price $25 per acre, one half cash, balance in 12 months.

A valuable site for a hotel at Nag's Head, 40 miles from Elizabeth City, and 50 miles from Edenton. This is situated immediately on the Ocean, and is a famous Summer resort for invalids, and those seeking health, comfort, and amusements during the summer months. It is in direct communication by steamboats and railroad with all parts of North Carolina, Virginia, and the North; and is equal in natural advantages to Newport, or Cape May. Visitors flock to this famous summer resort by hundreds and thousands, and a large amount of money can be made by a hotel. A charter has been obtained from the Legislature of N. C., for a joint stock company to build the hotel. There is now an old hotel on the spot, which could be cheaply repaired and bought for $3,000. This hotel, though imperfectly kept, cleared the proprietor last season, over $3,000. For a man or a company, having some capital, this is one of the finest chances to make money at hotel keeping to be found anywhere. The early attention of the public is invited to this property.

A fine steam saw and grist mill at Hertford, the county seat of Perquimans County, N. C., 18 miles from Elizabeth City. This mill has a fifty horse power engine, now in good running, two pairs of best French burr stones, and two upright saws. The house has a brick basement, and the building is large and in good order. There is one and a half acres of land belonging to this property, and a good two story dwelling, and other out houses. The section of country adjacent abounds in the finest yellow pine, cypress, ash, poplar, and other valuable timber. This property originally cost $15,000, and is now offered at forced sale for the low price of $8,500, $7,00, cash, and the balance in six equal instalments, six months apart each with interest.

A fine farm and fishery in same county. The farm contains 400 acres of the finest land, immediately on Albemarle Sound where it is over 12 miles wide, and 18 to 20 feet deep, has got buildings, and fine neighborhood. The fishery lies on the farm and goes with it. It has been recently repaired, and all the necessary boats, buildings, &c., which cost over $15,000 (over 9 years ago). The fishery alone, in a good season, will make from 5 to $10,000 profit to the owner. This property is offered at forced sale for the low price of $20,000, $7,000 cash, balance on easy times.

A store at South Mills, in Camden county, 20 miles from E. City, and 20 miles from Norfolk, lying on the canal where steamers pass daily. A fine chance for merchandize. Store is large with dwelling above containing six rooms, is in first rate order, has office, kitchen, dairy, and other necessary outhouses. Goods to the amt. of $50,000 per annum can be sold here, and at large profits. A splended stand for a country retail store. Price $2,500—one third cash, balance in one and two years.

A valuable tract of land in Camden county, at South Mills, on the Dismal Swamp Canal, lying on the canal for two miles, containing over 900 acres of land—two-thirds cleared, and in a fine state of cultivation, with good buildings, &c.; balance in valuable timber. Price $12,000, one-third cash, balance in one and two years, interest from January, 1871. This is a valuable farm and can grow wheat and vegetables, and being midway between Elizabeth City and Norfolk, and located where steamers pass the door daily, is a desirable and cheap property.

A fine farm of 600 acres, within six miles of E. City, one mile from navigable water, and the best cotton farm in the State. It is also well adapted to raising corn and wheat. This farm has a splended two-story dwelling upon it, large barn, 40 by 60 feet, a large number of outhouses, splended trees and shrubbery, is in a strong Union neighborhood, and altogether the most desirable place in the county. A little over one-half of this land is cleared, and the balance is covered with the finest yellow pine, poplar, ash and other timber. Price $30 per acre—one third cash, balance in one and two years with interest. Title reserved.

Sixteen houses and lots in Elizabeth City, with good dwellings, out-houses, &c. Prices and terms reasonable.

A valuable farm in Perquimans county, N. C., near navigable water. Has a fine dwelling-house with ten rooms, in splended order, with splended barns and stables, all in first rate order. The farm is very productive in corn, oats, peas, cotton and clover. It is one of the finest farms in the State and is in a good state of cultivation, contains 75 acres of land, about three-fourths cleared and under cultivation. Price $10,000, one-third cash January 1, next, balance in two equal annual instalments with interest at the rate of six per cent.

A farm of 370 acres 8 miles from town by water, and 12 miles by land, is offered for sale for $10,000 in easy payments. This tract of land lies immediately on the River which is 4 miles wide and washes the farm its whole length on one side, and a branch of the River one mile wide binds it on one end. The land is well adapted to raising corn, wheat, cotton, oats, peas, &c., lies high and dry, and is susceptible of the highest improvement. Fronting and looking over, as it does, two large sheets of navigable water, where steamers and sailing vessels are constantly passing, carrying freight and passengers to all parts of the country, its location and surroundings, are of the most fascinating and desirable character. There is a fishery on it ready for working a seine 2,500 yards long, and which commands a portion of both streams of water, and can be made immensely profitable. The price charged is low, and the purchase a very desirable one. The buildings consist of a good two-story dwelling and out-houses.

A desirable house and lot in the town of Elizabeth City on the corner of two principal streets, the principal one, and situated in the best business locality in the town. The lot contains about two acres of land, and the buildings consist of a fair dwelling three stories high, containing eight rooms, all in good order, another two story building with four rooms and pantries, dairy, smoke-house, stables, &c. The dwelling has a good cellar under it. There is room on the front lot to erect two good stores, and they would occupy the best stand in the town for merchandize.

SOUTHERN CLAIMS

AGAINST

THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT.

Loyal citizens of North Carolina and other Southern States, will be pleased to learn that Congress at the last session passed a law for a commission to be appointed to examine and report on all claims that may be presented to them for Quartermaster and Commissary stores furnished the Federal Army during the late war.

The undersigned are prepared to furnish blanks, and give all information to those having claims—and to prosecute the same to final settlement. Having received the endorsement for ability, &c., from the Hon. Senators Messrs. Pool and Abbott and the Representatives from North Carolina—we believe that we can give satisfaction to all who entrust their claims to us.

TO THE FARMERS OF EASTERN CAROLINA.

NATURAL FISH GUANO.

I have on hand a quantity of Pure FISH GUANO in its natural state which I will deliver on board of any vessel at Oregon Inlet, N. C., for $25 per ton or I will deliver it at any landing for $30 per ton.

Considering that the Guano of Commerce costs from $50 to $60 per ton, and so much of it being adulterated, farmers can readily see that it is to their advantage to purchase the purer article. I offer them at such reduced rates. Orders sent to me at Roanoke Island will receive prompt attention.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE LAND AND LUMBER COMPANY having a large amount of Real Estate of their own to dispose of, and their business having increased to such an extent, they think it prudent to decline acting further as Commission Agents for the sale of lands belonging to others. They will however be glad at all times to furnish every facility to parties coming to Elizabeth City with a desire to look at the country and make purchases if they find it to their interest to do so.

The following list of property, owned by the Company, is offered for sale on the most reasonable terms. Their object now is to acquire a larger monied capital for the purpose of further developing their unimproved lands and carrying out their original design of increasing the Commerce and General Trade of Elizabeth City.

As there are others in the Commission Business, parties are referred to their advertisement for further information.

ELIZABETH CITY.

The following desirable list of Properties in Elizabeth City are offered at very reduced prices for cash or on time payments at rates which make any of them excellent investments for capitalists. We feel confident that this City is destined to become a large place and property will advance rapidly. Emigration is now tending Southernward and the feeling is in universal favor toward Elizabeth City.

A large two story dwelling known as the Parsonage, with fine double Piazza front and back, large out kitchen, stables, carriage house, with 17 acres of ground well enclosed. This ground is all within the corporation of the City, and is well situated to lay out in building lots and make out of it ten fold the price asked for it.

A two-story dwelling containing ten rooms, 10,000 gallon cistern and all necessary out-houses, with large lot. Situated on Main Street. A Vacant Lot no better located and not so large as this was sold recently for $1600 cash.

A large brick store house and wharf situate on Water street, in E. City, comprising three lots with 300 feet of water front, permanently wharfed for the accommodation of large vessels. There is erected on these lots a large two-story brick building, 50 by 80 feet, well fitted up for a wholesale or retail trade at present occupied by the "Yankee Store."

A large wood store on west side of Water street 36 by 60, two stories high, being one of the best stands on Water street for merchandizing.

A House and Lot on Riverside Avenue. House 20ft front by 50 ft deep. Containing eight rooms with Pantry and Cellar, all well finished, modern style, and having all necessary out buildings. The lot contains a front of 300 ft, and would be a good location for a large shop or foundry as one whole side fronts on the water.

Also a large number of Wharf Lots, Mill Lots and Vacant Lots at very low prices, some of which are enumerated below. The Wharf Lots are 200ft deep and will be sold to any size desired along the River. Among them are some most eligible situations for Store Houses, Mills and Manufactories of any kind as there is a fine harbor immediately in front of them, having 30ft of water, sufficient for vessels of any capacity. Along Pennsylvania Avenue are offered some of the finest and choicest lots, for dwellings in town at prices varying according to location. This will be the finest street in town, is 80 feet wide, size of Lot 100ft front by 200ft deep. There are now a number of first class residences being erected on this street. Immediately in the vicinity of these Lots the Company have erected a large Planing Mill, Sash, Blind and Door Factory at a cost of near $20,000 and also their Saw Mill at a cost of near $15,000. That now is the proper time to invest in those Lots there can be no doubt, as they will double in value in a very short time. Lots not near so good as these, are now selling in other parts of the City at more than double the price asked for these.

VACANT LOTS.

Lots Nos. 150, 155, 158, 161, 163, 165, 167, 170, 172, 175, 178, 180, 182, 185, 187, 190, 193, 195, 198 and 200, situate on Pennsylvania avenue, in the new extension of Elizabeth City, all choice lots, intended for the better class of residences. Size of lots 100 feet front by 200 feet deep. Price varying, according to location, from $100 to $1000.

TOWN LOTS.

Lots Nos. 250, 253, 255, 256, 258, 261, 263, 266, 267, 268, 271, 283, 285, 287, 288, 289, 291, 296, 299 and 300, situated on various Streets in the new extension of Elizabeth City, size of lots 50 feet front by 100 feet deep, at prices varying from $25 to $100.

MILL LOTS.

Four Mill-Lots situated on Knobb's Creek, so that logs can be taken from the creek to the mill. These lots have 200 feet each of water front, and over 600 feet deep to Mill street, and are choice sites. The purchaser will also have the right of storage for logs in the above.

PASQUOTANK COUNTY.

The Land and Lumber Company also offer for sale, one thousand acres of their timbered land along the Main Road leading from Elizabeth City to Hertford and Edenton. Said land heavily wooded, and very rich and about four miles from Elizabeth City. This land will be sold in lots to suit purchasers and at the low price often dollars per acre.

They also offer a tract of three thousand acres in Lots to suit purchasers, near the Pasquotank River, ten miles from Elizabeth City and three miles from South Mills. This land is heavily set with wood and also has upon it a vast amount of saw timber, and has a most excellent soil. This is a fine location for a small Colony. There is now a Public Road running directly through it. This tract is offered at the low price of eight dollars per acre if sold to one party, or at only a fraction more if divided into small lots.

The Company will also sell their farm of 150 acres two miles from Elizabeth City. 125 acres cleared and under good cultivation, well fenced, having upon it two dwelling houses, one new and the necessary out buildings wanted on a farm, and will be sold on very reasonable terms.

Also another farm one mile from Elizabeth City containing one hundred acres, between thirty and forty acres cleared and under cultivation, the balance is now being cut off and is nearly ready to be cleared up and cultivated. This property is very desirable being so near the City though for reasons first given will be sold at a very low price.

We have a finely timbered tract of land situated on the Albemarle Sound twenty miles from Elizabeth City, containing 124 acres. Good timber land bordering on the water is valuable both for wood as well as saw timber as water transportation affords a good margin for wood, say one dollar per cord. This will also make good farm land—will be sold for one thousand dollars.

Also one other tract of land containing 154 acres situated immediately on the Pasquotank River ten miles from Elizabeth City, valuable for wood, and is excellent farming lands, would be sold for six dollars per acre.

GATES COUNTY.

The Land & Lumber Company have a tract of 350 acres of timbered land one half mile from Chowan River and three miles from Winton the county seat of Hertford county. This body of land is well timbered and will be sold at the low price of three dollars per acre.

☞ The most direct and cheapest route is to go to Baltimore by N. C. R. R., then Bay Line steamer to Norfolk, Va., then steamer to Elizabeth City, N. C.

MANUFACTURERS AND DEALERS IN LUMBER.

VINEGAR BITTERS

J. WALKER, Proprietor. R. H. McDONALD & CO., Druggists and Gen'l Agents, San Francisco, Cal., and 32 and 34 Commerce St., New York.

MILLIONS Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects. They are not a vile Fancy Drink, made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true medicine, made from the native roots and herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms are the offspring of Dyspepsia.

They Invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid Liver and Bowels, which render them of unequaled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the System in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. Says a distinguished physiologist, there is scarcely an individual upon the face of the earth whose body is exempt from the presence of worms. It is not upon the healthy elements of the body that worms exist, but upon the diseased humors and slimy deposits that breed these living monsters of disease. No vermifuge, no anthelmintics, will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers.

Grapes as Food for the Family.

Mr. M. B. Batcham, Painsville, Ohio, says in Hearth and Home that few people as yet, even among those who grow and use grapes to some extent, have any correct appreciation of their value as daily food. He continues: "Last year my family consisted of ten persons most of the season—six of them children from 4 to 16 years of age—and occasional visitors, perhaps making an average of 11 persons. Having a vineyard of six acres, of a dozen or more varieties of good grapes and the crop abundant and cheap, I supplied the household without ...ost, taking care to furnish two or more varieties at each meal, alternating them so as not to pall the appetites of the family, as will soon be the case if only one or two kinds are eaten freely, especially if such kinds as the Concord and Delaware, which are deficient in acidity and sprightliness. By using with these such varities as Creveling, Allen's Hybrid, Rebecca, Catawba, and especially Iona, the appetite is kept fresh, and the quantity eaten by a family will be doubled. In this way I found that my family consumed on an average a 20-pound basketful daily—when not too bountifully supplied with nice peaches—for about four months; then we had 200 pounds of nice Ionas, kept fresh for Winter use, lasting until February, and a similar quantity of different varieties were used for canning and ...sh jam and jelly, for lasting until the next crop comes in, and we find no fruit more valuable in this way to provide for a failure of strawberries or other summer fruits. So, then, it is true that we used about a ton of grapes, but not all of them in four months, and I am satisfied that it was more profitable disposition of the fruit than selling it in the markets at the prices current last Fall. The health of my family was perfect the whole time, and from the absence of the desire for rich food, pastry, etc., there was quite a saving in household labor and in grocers bills. Moral: Let us hear no more tenching that half a dozen grapevines are enough for a family of respectable size, nor that the Concord is the only 'grape for the million.' P. S. S. I am not now a nurseryman, nor growing grapevines for sale."

Some Seasonable Suggestions.

The first work in the Spring on my own farm, writes Joseph Harris in the American Agriculturist, is to let off any water that accumulates on the surface. No matter how carefully the dead furrows and outlets may have been made in the Fall, there is always more or less to be done in the Spring, to provide free egress for the water. A few hours' work with a hoe and spade, at this season, will often let off thousands of gallons of water, which otherwise would sink into the soil, and keep it wet and cold for several weeks. Many a farmer would in this way save enough in one year to pay for a dozen good papers and a score of the best agricultural books. In letting off a shallow pool of water, the easiest and quickest plan is to commence at the pool and make a little furrow with a hoe, letting the water follow you. But where the water is in a somewhat deep basin, with little apparent fall from it to the outlet, a better plan is to commence at the outlet, and dig with a spade up to the basin; and in order to be sure that you have to fall, dig the ditch deep enough to let the water follow you up to the basin. In this way I have rarely found a basin that could not be drained. There is nothing that people are so often deceived about as the amount of fall to land. * * * Unless we can do the work in the Winter, Spring is the best time to dig underdrains. The land is full of water, and it is much easier digging than in the Summer or Autumn. And it is no slight advantage to have water enough to level by. If the water flows freely through the tiles when laid, and care is exercised in filling in the ditches and packing the soil round the tile, right enough to hold them in place, there is little or no danger of their stopping afterwards. * * * Harrowing Winter wheat is a practice I would earnestly commend. Many farmers are afraid that the harrow will pull up the wheat, but such is not the case. If the land is dry, a good heavy, forty-toothed harrow will destroy many weeds, break the crust over the soil, and greatly benefit the plant. * * * Harrowing meadows and pastures is often very beneficial, and I am surprised that the practice is so generally neglected. Put three horses to a harrow, and get on and ride. Harrow the field both ways, and lap it if necessary.

Rotation of Crops in Nature.

It is generally considered that the principle of rotation in crops is a modern discovery, and yet nature has worked in this way from the commencement. Proofs of this are seen in the vegetable remains of rocks and coal beds, and even now we see the same principle at work when we cut down a pine woods, which if allowed to grow undisturbed is replaced with deciduous trees, such as oaks, beeches, maples, etc., and a beech or maple or oak wood cut will be replaced with pines. Here is undoubtedly rotation of crops, and we wisely follow nature when we adopt the principle in our agricultural operations.

Poor Feed.

Jeremiah O'Brien, Oneida county N. Y., wanted to know of the Farmer's Club, what he should do for cows; he fed them hay, but they were rough, scrawny and poor, and very weak. Would cap purpose help them, or is the soil deficient in lime, potash or iron? He wanted light on the subject. F. D. Curtis—Poor feed is what's the matter. He should give them some oil meal with their hay, or steam their feed. Dr. Crane added that good hay with meal of some sort was all that was needed; it was poor feed that caused all the hollow horn we hear of and most other complaints. It did not pay to cook feed where corn was twenty-five cents a bushel, any how.

Cost of Keeping Cows in Milk During Winter.

An "Orange County" milk producer on Long Island, thus feeds his cows: namely, ten pounds of hay, four quarts of "bran" or oil meal, and one bushel of barley grain daily. The cost of this is, for hay 15 cents, meal 15 cents, grain 18 cents, total 48 cents. The average yield is ten quarts daily, which retails at ten cents per quart. Calculating for interest on cost of stock and other expences, and a proper remuneration for the uncomfortable and unreasonable labor necessary, if an "Orange County" dairymen is honest, he is far from being a "bloated aristocrat," or one who does not well earn his money.

Horses kept in the stables and not doing much work should be regularly cleaned and fed. Some farmers seem to think that unless a horse is to be taken out to work he does not need cleaning. Such a man, to be consistent, ought not to wash himself unless he is going to town.

Mrs. Laura Fair, the California murderess, has written a sympathetic letter to Mrs. Wharton.

DESCRIPTIVE CATALOGUE

OF VALUABLE

NORTH CAROLINA LANDS,

FOR SALE BY

GEORGE D. POOL.

Real Estate Agent,

ELIZABETH CITY, N. C.

In presenting my list of lands and other properties for sale, I would say that no section of the United States offers such inducements for capitalists and emigrants, as this section of North Carolina. In longevity and healthfulness, it will compare favorably with any where; and in easy and cheap transportation of its products to market, in pleasantness of climate, in the susceptibility of the people, in great fertility and durability of soil, no section can equal it.

A railroad will soon be built from Weldon, putting this place in direct communication by Rail, with the whole United States; this, together with our great fishing farming, and manufacturing interests, and certain early completion of already projected works of improvement for putting in nearer, cheaper and easier communication with the Ocean, will render this one of the most important commercial, and manufacturing points on the Southern country.

A Steam Saw and Grist Mill in the town of Nixonton 8 miles from E. City. This Mill has a fine wharf and store attached on deep navigable water, the engine is 40 horse power, and all in good order. It is one of the finest locations to be found any where for custom work, and for getting good saw logs easily and cheaply. Price $4,000 cash.

Adjoining the mill property is 40 acres of fine land on the River, with three houses, all for $1200. Near the same is a good two story dwelling and 13 acres of land for $2,000, and a good one story dwelling, with one acre of land for $300.

Also two fine farms in Pasquotank county, 10 miles from E. City, within half mile of church, school house and post office. One tract contains about 400 acres, with fair buildings and mostly cleared, and the other contains 300 acres, with good two story dwelling, large barn, and other outhouses, both are offered at $20 per acre, one-third cash, balance in one and two years.

Also one other tract in Pasquotank county, containing 116 acres, within one mile of the town with fine buildings, mostly cleared and in cultivation. Price $25 per acre, one half cash, balance in 12 months.

A valuable site for a hotel at Nag's Head, 40 miles from Elizabeth City, and 50 miles from Edenton. This is situated immediately on the Ocean, and is a famous Summer resort for invalids, and those seeking health, comfort, and amusements during the summer months. It is in direct communication by steamboats and railroad with all parts of North Carolina, Virginia, and the North; and is equal in natural advantages to Newport, or Cape May. Visitors flock to this famous summer resort by hundreds and thousands, and a large amount of money can be made by a hotel. A charter has been obtained from the Legislature of N. C. for a joint stock company to build the hotel. There is now an old hotel on the spot, which could be cheaply repaired and bought for $3,000. This hotel, though imperfectly kept, cleared the proprietor last season, over $5,000. For a man or a company, having some capital, this is one of the finest chances to make money at hotel keeping to be found anywhere. The early attention of the public is invited to this property.

A fine steam saw and grist mill in Hertford, the county seat of Perquimans County, N. C., 18 miles from Elizabeth City. This mill has a fifty horse power engine, now in good running, two pairs of best French burr stones, and two upright saws. The house has a brick basement, and the building is large and in good order. There is one and a half acres of land belonging to this property, and a good two story dwelling, and other out-houses. The section of country adjacent abounds in the finest yellow pine, cypress, ash, poplar, and other valuable timber. This property originally cost $15,000, and is now offered at forced sale for the low price of $3,500, $700, cash, and the balance in six equal instalments, six months apart each with interest.

A fine farm and fishery in same county. The farm contains 400 acres of the finest land, lies immediately on Albemarle Sound where the water is 12 miles wide, and 18 to 20 feet deep, has got buildings, and fine neighborhood. The fishery is on the farm and goes with it. It has now some 2,500 yards long, and with it the necessary boats, buildings, &c., which cost over $1,000 to-day. Price $2,000. The fishery alone is a good season, will make from 5 to $10,000 prout to the owner. This property is offered at forced sale for the low price of $20,000, $7,000 cash, balance on easy times.

A store at South Mills, in Camden county, 20 miles from E. City, and 20 miles from Norfolk, lying on the canal where steamers pass daily. A fine chance for merchandize. Store is large with dwelling above containing six rooms, is in first rate order, has office, kitchen, dairy, and other necessary outhouses. Goods to the amt. of $50,000 per annum can be sold here, and at large profits. A splendid stand for a country retail store. Price $2,500—one third cash, balance in one and two years.

A valuable tract of land in Camden county, at South Mills, on the Dismal Swamp Canal, lying on the canal for two miles, containing over 900 acres of land—two-thirds cleared, and in a fine state of cultivation, with good buildings, &c., balance in valuable timber. Price $12,000, one-third cash, balance in one and two years, interest from January, 1871. This is a real valuable farm for corn, wheat, and vegetables, and being halfway between Elizabeth City and Norfolk, and located where steamers pass the door daily, is a desirable and cheap property.

A tract of 600 acres within six miles of E. City, one mile from navigable water, all the best cotton farm in the State. It is also well adapted to raising corn and wheat. This farm has a splended two-story dwelling upon it, large barn, 40 by 60 feet, a large number of outhouses, splended trees and timber, and is in a strong Union neighborhood, and altogether the most desirable place in the county. A little over one-half of this land is cleared, and the balance is covered with the finest yellow pine, poplar, ash and other timber. Price $30 per acre—one third cash, balance in one and two years with interest. Title reserved.

Sixteen houses and lots in Elizabeth City, with good dwellings, out-houses, &c. Prices and terms reasonable.

A valuable farm in Perquimans county, N. C. near navigable water. Has a fine dwelling-house with ten rooms, in splended order, with splended barns and stables, all in first rate order. The farm is very productive in corn, oats, wheat, cotton and clover. It is one of the finest farms in the State and is known good for every crop. It contains 375 acres of land, about three-fourths cleared and under cultivation. Price $10,000, one third cash, January 1, next, balance in two equal annual instalments with interest at the rate of six per cent.

A farm of 370 acres 8 miles from town by water, and 12 miles by land, is offered for sale for $10,000 in easy payments. This tract of land lies immediately on the River which is 4 miles wide and washes the farm its whole length on one side, and a branch of the River one mile wide, binds it on one end. The land is well adapted to raising corn, wheat, cotton, oats, peas, &c., lies high and dry, and is susceptible of the highest improvement. Fronting and looking over, as it does, two large sheets of navigable water, where steamers and sailing vessels are constantly passing, carrying freight and passengers to all parts of the country, its location and surroundings, are of the most fascinating and desirable character. There is a fishery on it ready for working a seine 2,500 yards long, and which commands a portion of both streams of water, and can be made immensely profitable. The price charged is low, and the purchase a very desirable one. The buildings consist of a good two-story dwelling and out-houses.

A desirable house and lot in the town of Elizabeth City on the corner of two principal streets, the principal one, and situated in the best business locality in the town. The lot contains about two acres of land, and the buildings consist of a fair dwelling three stories high, containing eight rooms, all in good order, another two story building with four rooms and pantries, dairy, smoke-house, stables, &c. The dwelling has a good ceiling under it. There is room on the front lot to erect two good stores, and they would occupy the best stand in the town for merchandize.

NATURAL FISH GUANO.

I have on hand a quantity of Pure FISH GUANO in its natural state which I will deliver on board of any vessel at Oregon Inlet, N. C., for $25 per ton or I will deliver it at any landing for $30 per ton.

Considering that the Guano of Commerce costs from $50 to $60 per ton, and so much of it being adulterated, farmers can readily see that it is to their advantage to purchase the purer article I offer them at such reduced rates. Orders sent to me at Roanoke Island will receive prompt attention.

Incorporated by the Legislature of North Carolina, December 17, 1868.

CAPITAL STOCK - - - - $300,000,00.

General Office: Elizabeth City, N. C.

OFFICERS

FRED. PAXTON, President. W. H. SMITH, Vice Pres't. C. W. SMITH, Treasurer. W. B. PAXSON, Secretary.

DIRECTORS

FRED'K PAXSON, E. R. ARTMAN, CHARLES W. SMITH, JOHN VOGLE AND W. H. SMITH.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE LAND AND LUMBER COMPANY having a large amount of Real Estate of their own to dispose of, and their business having increased to such an extent, they think it prudent to decline acting further as Commission Agents for the sale of lands belonging to others. They will however be glad at all times to furnish every facility to parties coming to Elizabeth City with a desire to look at the country and make purchases if they find it to their interest to do so.

The following list of property, owned by the Company, is offered for sale on the most reasonable terms. Their object now is to acquire a larger monied capital for the purpose of further developing their unimproved lands and carrying out their original design of increasing the Commerce and General Trade of Elizabeth City.

As there are others in the Commission Business, parties are referred to their advertisement for further information.

ELIZABETH CITY.

The following desirable list of Properties in Elizabeth City are offered at very reduced prices for cash or on time payments at rates which make any of them excellent investments for capitalists. We feel confident that this City is destined to become a large place and property will advance rapidly. Emigration is now tending Southernward and the feeling is in universal favor toward Elizabeth City.

A large two story dwelling known as the Parsonage, with fine double Piazza, front and back, large out kitchen, stables, carriage house, with 17 acres of ground well enclosed. This ground is all within the corporation of the City, and is well situated to lay out in building lots and make out of it ten fold the price asked for it.

A two-story dwelling containing ten rooms, 10,000 gallon cistern and all necessary out-houses, with large lot. Situated on Main Street. A Vacant Lot no better located and not so large as this was sold recently for $1600 cash.

A large brick store house and wharf situate on Water street, in E. City, comprising three lots with 100 feet of water front, permanently wharfed for the accommodation of large vessels. There is erected on these lots a large two-story brick building, 50 by 80 feet, well fitted up for a wholesale or retail trade at present occupied by the "Yankee Store."

A large wood store on west side of Water street 36 by 60, two stories high, being one of the best stands on Water street for merchandizing.

A House and Lot on Riverside Avenue. House 20ft front by 50 ft deep. Containing eight rooms with Pantry and Cellar, all well finished, modern style, and having all necessary out buildings. The lot contains a front of 400 ft, and would be a good location for a large shop or foundry as one whole side fronts on the water.

Also a large number of Wharf Lots, Mill Lots and Vacant Lots at very low prices, some of which are enumerated below. The Wharf Lots are 200ft deep and will be sold to any size desired along the River. Among them are some most eligible situations for Store Houses, Mills and Manufactories of any kind as there is a fine harbor immediately in front of them, having 30ft of water, sufficient for vessels of any capacity. Along Pennsylvania Avenue are offered some of the finest and choicest lots, for dwellings in town at prices varying according to location. This will be the finest street in town, is 80 feet wide, size of Lot 100ft front by 200ft deep. There are now a number of first class residences being erected on this street. Immediately in the vicinity of these Lots the Company have erected a large Planing Mill, Sash, Blind and Door Factory at a cost of near $20,000 and also their Saw Mill at a cost of near $15,000. That now is the proper time to invest in those Lots there can be no doubt, as they will double in value in a very short time. Lots not near so good as these, are now selling in other parts of the City at more than double the price asked for these.

VACANT LOTS.

Lots Nos. 150, 155, 158, 161, 163, 165, 167, 170, 172, 175, 178, 180, 182, 185, 187, 190, 193, 195, 198 and 200, situate on Pennsylvania avenue, in the new extension of Elizabeth City, all choice lots, intended for the better class of residences. Size of lots 100 feet front by 200 feet deep. Price varying, according to location, from $100 to $1000.

TOWN LOTS.

Lots Nos. 250, 253, 255, 256, 258, 261, 263, 266, 267, 268, 271, 283, 285, 287, 288, 289, 291, 296, 299 and 300, situated on various Streets in the new extension of Elizabeth City, size of lots 50 feet front by 100 feet deep, at prices varying from $25 to $100.

MILL LOTS.

Four Mill Lots situated on Knobb's Creek, so that logs can be taken from the creek to the mill. These lots have 200 feet each of water front, and over 600 feet deep to Mill street, and are choice sites. The purchaser will also have the right of storage for logs in the boom.

PASQUOTANK COUNTY.

The Land and Lumber Company also offer for sale, one thousand acres of their timbered land along the Main Road leading from Elizabeth City to Hertford and Edenton. Said land heavily wooded, soil very rich and about four miles from Elizabeth City. This land will be sold in lots to suit purchasers and at the low price of ten dollars per acre.

They also offer a tract of three thousand acres in Lots to suit purchasers, near the Pasquotank River, ten miles from Elizabeth City and three miles from South Mills. This land is heavily set with wood and also has upon it a vast amount of saw timber, and has a most excellent soil. This is a fine location for a small Colony. There is now a Public Road running directly through it. This tract is offered at the low price of eight dollars per acre if sold to one party, or at only a fraction more if divided into small lots.

The Company will also sell their farm of 150 acres two miles from Elizabeth City. 125 acres cleared and under good cultivation, well fenced, having upon it two dwelling houses, one new and the necessary out buildings wanted on a farm, and will be sold on very reasonable terms.

Also another farm one mile from Elizabeth City containing one hundred acres, between thirty and forty acres cleared and under cultivation, the balance is now being cut off and is nearly ready to be cleared up and cultivated. This property is very desirable being so near the City though for reasons first given will be sold at a very low price.

We have a finely timbered tract of land situated on the Albemarle Sound twenty miles from Elizabeth City, containing 124 acres. Good timber land bordering on the water is valuable both for wood as well as saw timber as water transportation affords a good margin for wood, say one dollar per cord. This will also make good farm land—will be sold for one thousand dollars.

Also one other tract of land containing 154 acres situated immediately on the Pasquotank River ten miles from Elizabeth City, valuable for wood, and is excellent farming lands, would be sold for six dollars per acre.

GATES COUNTY.

The Land & Lumber Company have a tract of 350 acres of timbered land one half mile from Chowan River and three miles from Winton the county seat of Hertford county. This body of land is well timbered and will be sold at the low price of three dollars per acre.

☞ The most direct and cheapest route is to go to Baltimore by N. C. R. R., then Bay Line steamer to Norfolk, Va., then steamer to Elizabeth City, N. C.

MILLIONS Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects. They are not a vile Fancy Drink, made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true medicine, made from the native roots and herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They Invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid Liver and Bowels, which render them of unequaled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the System in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. Says a distinguished physician, "there is scarcely an individual upon the face of the earth whose body is exempt from the presence of worms. It is not upon the healthy elements of the body that worms exist, but upon the diseased humors and slimy deposits that breed these living monsters of disease. No system of Medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics, will free the system from worms like these Bitters."

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers.
